Description

The Law Society's Coach and Advisor Network (CAN) provides lawyers and paralegals with access to shorter-term, outcome-oriented relationships with Coaches and Advisors drawn from the professions. Coaches support the implementation of best practices and Advisors assist with substantive and procedural law inquiries on client files.

Our goal is to establish strong connections with our Advisors and Participants to create a robust community that supports the development of best practices and self-directed learning. By fostering the professions' collective competence, CAN seeks to serve the interests of the public and the professions.

Come to this session to find out how the Coach and Advisor Network is helping improve practice outcomes and integrating coaching with our profession's approach to professional competence. Learn how you can benefit and get involved.
